

THE CAPACITY AND SELF DETERMINATION (Jersey) LAW 201- AND THE MENTAL HEALTH (Jersey) LAW 201-

Mr Ian Dyer, Director for Older Peoples Services, (and Policy Lead)
Community & Social Services

And

Matthew Berry, Law Officers' Department in Jersey

The content will be of equal interest, relevance and benefit to legal practitioners, health professionals and other medical practitioners

Attendance at this Presentation and Discussion will provide:

- An over view of the Mental Health Law
- An overview of the Capacity and Self Determination Law
- Roles and Responsibilities
- Case studies
- There will be opportunity for dialogue, questions and answers

The Institute of Law, Seale Street, St Helier

Wednesday 12 October 2016 between 9.30 am and 1 pm
(registration from 9.15 am)

Delegates will receive a Certificate of Attendance.
This course will provide 3 hours of CPD for lawyers

Cost: Legal practitioners:

£100 (JPIMS members) and £125 (non – members)

Non – legal practitioners:

£25 (JPIMS members) and £50 (non – members)

Please return to JPIMS, c/o Janet Sloan, Tremoceiro Advocates, 20, Britannia Place,
Bath Street, St Helier, JE2 4SU

REPLY – CAPACITY AND SELF DETERMINATION (JERSEY) LAW 201- AND MENTAL HEALTH (JERSEY) LAW 201-

Please complete and return with a cheque made payable to JPIMS

- I am a JPIMS member and will be attending and enclose a cheque for £100
- I am a non-member and will be attending and enclose a cheque for £125
- I am not a legal practitioner but am a JPIMS member and enclose a cheque for £25
- I am not a legal practitioner and a non – member and enclose a cheque for £50

Name:
Firm/Practice:
Telephone:
Email:

*Please return to JPIMS, c/o Janet Sloan, Tremoceiro Advocates, 20, Britannia Place,
Bath Street, St Helier, JE2 4SU*